MARBLE HILL..... MISSOUR! For the woman who thinks she is beautiful there is small hope of real

France will not approve of automobile racing until it can be made as harmless as dueling.

If the Japanese have a few more royal birthdays the army will go into the hands of the undertakers.

Gossin of the links: "A Berlin expert propulaties the information that there are 3,000 varieties of sausage," What a girl loves about a football game is that, not knowing anything about it, she can pretend to enjoy it wildly. Russia owes France $1,600,000,000 That settles it. Russell Sage will after this. Danville, Ky., recently had a water famine. A strange feature of the case was that the citizens regarded it as a serious matter. The Balkan war cloud is in the property-room, so thickly covered with dust that it might easily be mistaken for a feather bed The cancer experts are in session. and the consensus of opinion is that an operation can never make the cancer more malignant

That army captain who intends to plead that he forgot he had a wife in the Philippines clearly should turn his attention to mnemonics.

Chile has had five cabinets since the beginning of 1904. A great man down in Chile doesn't have to wait long before he gets a chance.

England will send several of her young officers to the military schools of Japan. Russia might follow England's example as soon as the war is

If that professor at St. Louis is right and the sun's heat really is electrical. here we have all been heating by electricity all our lives and never linew it.

A Pennsylvania man has applied to the court for a guardian to protect him from guileful women. Why doesn't he marry one with a projecting chin?

Sir William Ramsay suggests perpernal motion from radium-though how the stuff can "go" at its present price is a mystery to all but the millionaires.

With his newly invented locomotive tender, saving nearly eight tons' family dollars.

vises lovers to quarrel, on the ground | find what I seek? That's an open that an occasional scrap sharpens the question; but since this photograph head, and picking himself up from the intellect. But it will be well not to pro too fine a point upon it.

"We do not know the process of making banana flour," says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. How refreshing it is to see an editor confessing that there is anything he doesn't know!

circomstances a girl could hardly be blamed for wanting a chance to try it

There is an ingenious story now

On account of court effquette, precedent and that sort of thing, King Al- Who knows but what, if Fortune fafonso of Spain can choose but one certain girl for his wife. What a fix the herself I set eyes on next?" poor boy would be in if she were to turn him down!

Some English philosophers think there will never be another big war after the Russians and Japs get through. Evidently they don't expect the Baltic fleet to return home by way of the North Sea.

A health writer says women do not have so many colds as men because they are not addicted to heavy covering for the head. The gentleman should get married and watch wife take the rat out of her hair. A good many Boston stenographers. reading that Miss Pretty, a typowriter in the patent office at Washington, has copied 26,000 words of patent records in one day of seven hours, would like to know how much she gets a

At Lateadio Hearn's funeral at Okubo, in Japan, an address presented by his former students spoke of the pen of the deceased having been more powerful than Japan's victorious sword, which is a strong way of putting it just at present.

"I have thought of that," says Geo. Meredith, whenever an objection is proposed to his scheme of marriages limited to a ten-year term. Mr. Meredith seems to have thought of everything; but, like other reformers, he is everybody else to think as he does.

As the result of an accident that occurred some years ago a Santa Rosa man is able to observe the pulsations | Hung Chang. of his heart. It must be interesting for him to watch when it is being "torn by conflicting emotions."

market for their own gains. This will come as a keen disappointment to those who have supposed the operators in Wall street were operating merely for exercise or for the purpose of enriching the lambs.

King Edward now wears a bracelet. but let it be said in his behalf that he does not, as yet, go about carrying his pocketbook in his hand or hang his dreaming how much of his fate is ishes down the street. watch on a little hook upon his breast.

takes his breath away.

Why it should happen just there in the presence of Jack Travers must be left to those more skilful in selving

the problems of Fate. The three sisters spin their threads, and weave events, upon which our plans have

At all events, one of the wheels of the cab takes a singular notion to proceed on its own account, having se-

Effectually quelling the devil.

CHAPTER II.

The House With the Seven Gables.

overwhelmed by the disaster that has come upon him without a second's warning; but he quickly recovers his street, runs to the assistance of the and doubtiess believed the case far worse than it will turn out in the end.

Jack remembers the glimpse he had of the gentleman's face, and is er it can be possible be knows this ers he has made no mistake. "How-somewhere or other. Badly hurt, ain't anyhow?"-to Jack, who bends over.

"Tell that to the marines. Jack go on-promised to be there by

The man has an amazing amount of herpital," says a police officer who has

Jack, for he may have received internal injuries. You see he talks as if tarnin innelibly, as if seared by letters gate, and a small crowd has collected

Jack attempts to question the man,

some former period of his adventurous past, hoping to discover where he puts every time he moves his wrenched or

Turning to the hansom driver, Travers learns that he picked up his fare thing is done in this beautiful city on

He turns round; the Jehu is also

"It would be a wise plan," remarks

At the same time the words that forlorn hansom is assisted out unfortunate traveler.

the other, cheerfully,

there, or all is lost."

$5 no many operation

's off his head?"

arrived.

broken arm.

ard Spencer! "he exclaims.

"I have the beast all right; look

The driver has been momentarily running mate.

young man.

been based, had not occurred,

Copyright, 1897, by P. Tennyson Neely. Copyright, 1899, by Street and Smith, CHAPTER I.

Perhaps a Fool's Errand. "Stop-we drop off here," sings out | are passing the lamp-post, a face that Jack Travers, as he thrusts his head is so familiar to Jack that its presfrom a carriage that has just passed the magnificent Scott monument facing Princes street in the beautiful city of Edinburgh.

The Caledonian Jehn draws up to the curb, and his two passengers affair comes to pass. alight. Jack seems to be a young man; there is nothing at all extraordinary about his appearance as seen on this moonlit night, only that his quick actions would mark him as a fellow of considerable energy.

His companion, on the contrary. promises to attract an abundance of never have any respect for France attention in the streets of Edinburgh. icing a Chinaman, who still wears his more, and insists on dressing, to ome extent, at least, in his national

"Well," says Jack, when the vehicle olls away from the spot, "here we are, Ah Sin, safely landed in Princes street.. You see, we have loads of time; twelve was the hour appointed that witching hour when church-yards yawn and graves give up their dead.' Let us then saunter along Princes street in the direction of Calton Hill; and when we come to the north bridge over the railroad, we cross to High street, from which we can easily reach our destination, the distoric Canongate."

If Ah Sin hears he makes no reply. being accustomed to such soliloquies on the part of the remarkable gentleman with whose strange fortunes he has for several years been united. In adversity as well as prosperity this simple follower of Confucius had proven as faithful as the needle to the Pole. He knows more of Jack's life than any other person on earth, but secrets remain inviolate in his heathen breast. He walks beside Jack, a trifle to the rear, as though he would not presume.

An Sin knows his place, and in his eves this tall young man is a god whom he worships in secret. Sauntering slowly on, Jack casts an occasional glance aloft, and presently finds that they are exactly under the great clock suspended in air far up the face of the Old Tolbooth. "We go no further, Ah Sin. This

s the camping ground where we are to cool our heels waiting on the pleasure of-well, someone. If we fail tonight, then to-morrow at the same hour-any night this week will do. I've passed through something of wild life as a cowboy and ranch owner, and finally a miner; but the last state | devil that had cropped up in the usualthat has fallen to my share is perhaps | ly sedate animal. the most singular of all. Don't fancy it-can't believe I have any right to weight, Cornelius Vanderbilt proves accept; that's why I am here searchagain the heritage which is better than | ing for her. Find her yet, if I have to turn old Edinburgh upside down, or follow that rascal over the sea to A Pennsylvania school teacher ad Havana, whence he came. Will I fell into my hands 1 must confess to an interest in the hunt second to none in my whole life. Jove! I haven't looked at the divine creature for over an hour."

From a pocket he takes out a notebook, and unfastening the rubber band of this, gently draws out a card photograph. The face is that of a young girl-Pauline Aster got \$1,000,000 worth a charming face, that could hardly be of presents when she was married to found outside Scottish borders; for Captain Spender Clay, Under such the claims of Scotch lassies as queens of beauty have long been recognized as well founded, and hardly need the inspired pen of a Burns to court the favor of the world's judges. "Yes," says Jack, almost savagely, that it was one of Rudyard Kipling's at believe it with all my heart. This strenuous fales that inspired the Rus- is my fate-sweet Jessie Cameron; sian warships to fire on the English and could I win her heart, giadly fishing boats. Why not blame it on would I forego all those wonderful blessings Fortune has of late seen fit to shower on me. And it is to find The runaway air ship was found in $\big|_{\, h \in \Gamma}$ I have come to this northern capa Missouri cornfield. Another good ital, visiting the Canongate like a thing about a ranaway air ship is that thief in the night, and courting not when it comes down in a cornfield it only arrest as a prowler, but what is doesn't proceed to overeat until it is worse, a cold in the head. Well, here's wishing luck to the most respectable enterprise I ever had anything to do with in the course of my natural life!

vors me, it may be the little angel

the tace is that of a young orl. He actually sighs as he carefull: replaces the picture in its receptacle, of fire. and then easts a quick glance around | By this time numerous heads have to discover if anyone has been a wit- appeared at windows along the Canonness to his action.

Not a soul appears to be in sight around the broken hansom, which the save Ah Sin, and that acute Celestial driver is endeavoring to patch tempohaving vast difficulty in persuading has his back turned toward his young | rarily together, so that he may drag | Times. master, as though he would avoid giv- it away to the mews where his quaring him an awkward feeling-wise old | ters are located. Ah Sin, reader of human nature and pupil of the greatest of diplomats, Li whom he has apparently known at

Jack has just started to return to his former stamping ground, where he | up; but the other pays no attention. can rest his broad shoulders against muttering to himself about his ap- they sat down to the table. the stone stairs leading above, when pointment, and swearing horribly dispatch from Wall street says | a strange thing happens-the most remost of the operators there at the markable event in his experience so present time are trying to work the | far as the vagaries of chance are con> cerned. He hears a sound of wheels, and at the station, the gentleman having realizes that a vehicle of some sort is come by a delayed train. advancing from the direction of High | Quickly, in response to the policestreet-a vehicle that is being carried | man's cali, an ambulance arrives, at a rapid pace by the animal in the showing how systematically everyshafts. They come spinning on at a foyous the Forth. The unfortunate gentle-> pace, and naturally Jack has his eye | man is lifted into it, and almost before on the vehicle as it approaches, little | Jack realizes the fact, the vehicle vanbound up in that cab.

leaving the spot, with his horse towing the wrecked hansom; the little crowd disperses, heads are drawn in from windows, and almost like magic the Canongate resumes its normal state of midnight silence.

Jack rubs his eyes in bewilderment. "Come, was all this a dream, or did treally happen? That poor devil had an awful shake-up. Once we were chums, and many times have we slept under the same blanket, until that lit-1 As though the inmate has become tle affair down at Santa Fe separated us. I never could forgive Howard his somewhat anxious over his wheretreatment of that black-eved beauty. abouts, a face appears just as they What brings him across my path again, and, of all times, now? Heigho! ence here in old Edinburgh almost what o'clock is it up there—cleven fify? How the minutes drag! Have I eally been asleep and dreaming! Ah He opens his mouth as if to call out Sin, did a vehicle smash to pieces a name; but before it can leave his here?" he demands, turning on his lips the strangest part of the whole faithful follower.

(To be continued.)

POINTER FOR THE IMPECUNIOUS. Scheme That Enabled Young Man to Keep Up Appearance.

them into athe warp and woof that The cashier in the candy store who go to make up the fabric of human had married the telegraph operator lives with marvelous skill; and, lookhad just returned from her honeying back, we sometimes shudder to moon, and was receiving her friends contemplate what a change must have come over our fortunes if certain > mischievous manieuro girl. "I don't know whether he did or not," replied Mamie, "but I twigged the way be pressed his trousers. When we used to call on me I noticed that they were freshly creased every evening, and I knew he couldn't afford that pace at a tailor's. I noficed that before going to bed he straightened his trousers carefully and put the front edge of them into the am of the bedroom door. Of course he had to get up some time in the night and change sides. But he told ne he had been doing it so many cars he was accustomed to it. He had to be very careful putting hem in or the door wouldn't shut. But I'll tell you, girls, in the morning he had a crease that had a tailer's job whipped to a saspender buton. Men saving up to get married have their little tricks of making a good appearance on little money, just as girls have in making themselves so retty that men want to marry them."

PATRIOTISM OF THE JAPS.

All Classes of People Eager to Show Self-Sacrifice.

Societies and associations have been organized in Japan to relieve the famthes of the fighting men, and everycured a divorce from the axle and its one makes certain contributions to the relief fund. Some men contribute The result naturally is a sudden money or goods, some their labor, and wreck of the vehicle; the horse takes most of the lint and bandages used it upon himself to fling up his heels for the wounded are the work of womand might have beaten the cab into en, from the empress down to the kindling wood, as the driver sprawled saved to the relief societies.

for a country boy's gift. The school kiss guns, teacher and the elderman of the village suspected the money might have to satisfy his vanity, in which case it Petersburg and Smolensk." should be admonished against. An in-making of straw sandals. you to the passenger-I'm afraid he's been hurt," sings out Jack. Obediently the Jehn turns toward his dilapidated vehicle, and the inmate of the the funds, though their wishes have was inevitable, Fortune has indeed played him a tot been complied with.-Atlantic scurvy trick, for he is badly battered, Menthly.

One Kind of Legacy.

Wealthy men sometimes play grim jokes on those who are friendly to more than curious to ascertain wheth- them for the money there is in it. A few years ago a rich man of Ohio died So he bends over him, and discoy. care of his estate. By the terms of gressing. the will it was not to be opened for two years. Then its contents were to The man, who has been groaning be distributed to those of his friends with pain and is evidently consider. he had not remembered in his will. ceived, looks at him vacantly as he | will was not to share in the contents of the chest. "That was my name once-heard it When the estate was settled it seemed to many to be less valuable 12 Too plagued mean it comes just than they had calculated. By the time when I was about to take a leap into the two years had passed many who the lap of Fortune. Say, who are you, had pretended to be friends to the wealthy man were sure that the chest remember me Jack Travers?" says able and that they were to share in severe loss. it. A crowd of sharp-faced, avaricious out into a laugh, that grates on the the trustee the day the chest was to se opened. It was a heavy chest, and in an in-Travers! Why, he's dead, and I'm his ner compartment was a bundle of by the name. What's all this? Blood? with every evidence of value. On Then I'm badly burt ain't 1? Must each envelope was written: "To be distributed to my self-esteemed twelve. A fortune at stake you know, friends. If there are more than Show me the house with seven gables | enough, every man who wishes a secat the corner. I tell you I must get | ond helping is to be given another." not stop to open their envelopes, but reels forward, takes three steps, and | Some opened theirs and disappeared | street frontage in his block. falls headlong, so that it is only a from the office, for this is what they euick movement on the part of Ah found written on a legal sheet of Sin that saves him from crashing to paper: and have the gentleman taken to a satisfy your own desires."

Origin of Pieus Wish. story; One of the mombers of his concregation has a bright little daughor aged four. One cold Sunday mornhas inst winter she stood at the winfell in such broken sent thees from the low watching the throngs of people this of the womaled and dazed trav- the ladies wrapped in furst on their eler seem to have been written on his | way to church. Turning to her mother, | us ional bank.

he said: "Mamma, I wisht I was old enough n be a Christian and go to church." "Why?" inquired the mother, deased at this pious wish. "So's I could have a muff an' boa," replied the angel child.- New York

A Punitive Tip. A follower of "the races" and his friend took dinner together recently at a prominent seaside littel.

"About how much do you usually give the waiter?" asked the friend as "Well," returned the race track nan. "If he serves me well I give hym dollar, and if he serves me poorly I give him a tip on the races."

Stenographer of Old.

Jefferson had just fired the stenog "I had to," he said, sadly; "see what she made of the Declaration of Independence." "We hold these tooths to the shelf of a dentist-the tall men are crated quail." Sighing heavily, he finished the rest with his fist.

BREWERY WORKERS LOSE

No Control Over Engineers, Firemen It is Feared That Deputies Are Unand Teamsters at Breweries.

"Did he get on to the way you crimped your hair, Mamie?" asked the brewery workers' union.

filled the places of engineers and and thereupon organized the latter, day, was requested that the American federation of labor compel the strik- river runs, and it is here the water ers to be reinstated, and the conven-supply of the town and the plant is tion so voted. The convention like- secured, wise voted that all injunctions pendmonth from starvation.

CLAIMS RUSSIA VIOLATES

Correspondent Reports Steamers Carrying Arms Pass Dardanelles.

school made one day a contribution which passed the Dardanelles simiof two yea. It was thought too much larly, has a large arament of Hotch-

"Evidently once through the canal." says the correspondent, "they will been given to the lad by his parents | emulate the volunteer steamers St.

The correspondent at Moscow of quiry was accordingly made, and the Daily Telegraph claims authority brought out the fact that the boy had for the statement that General Stoesactually carned the money for the pur- sel's dispatch, sent by the tornedo pese by devoting his play hours to the | boat Rastorophy, informed Emperor | Nicholas that the Port Arthur garri-Even some criminals working in son was being starved out, with other prisons have made several applica- frank details of its actual condition, tions to contribute their earnings to showing that the fall of the fortress and left a mysterious iron chest in the tions than heretofore may be pro the people."

Reports from correspondents at the nese were killed panies attempted to penetrate the will be a larger and stronger meeting gird, and that no one was killed. Russian eastern flank on November next year. If the meeting is forbidden | He declared that the existence of Asks Receiver for Traction Companay. 23, but was met by two squadrons of in St. Petersburg, then it will take the union miners' camp at Christo- Lexington, Ky.: Geograe C. Webb Why, Howard, old boy, don't you contained something extremely value Russian cavalry and driven off with place in Moscow, Kieff or in an open pher, only three or four miles from has been appointed receiver of the

The man on the payement breaks looking men gathered in the office of bastopol, a portion of the crews of the have risked our liberties and we shall abolished, but says the matter lies ago by Senator George B. Davis of Black Sea fleet mutined, November not retreat. The law which makes wholly in Sheriff Stein's province. Derioit, Mich., with a capital stock 22, under the influence of the revolutional agitation for a change in the form of The arms are in Sheriff Stein's poses of $7,000,000. Outstanding claims tionary propoganda. The mutiny, it government punishable with penal sion. is added, was quelled by force of servitude is still in force. We are all ghost—take my oath on it. Haunted slender envelopes, sealed and tied arms, and several of the mutineers amenable, but so long as Prince Svia- Fhirty-Five Injured in Mississippi, were wounded

Those who were most greedy did at $1,200,000. Mr. Morgan has gradu- as lost. It is believed she sunk in a ally acquired all of the Madison ave- recent gale in the Black Sca and that pertinacity about him; at any rate, he formed in him to receive another, nue and most of the Thirty-sixth her entire erew and a number of pas-

> Memphis, Tenn.: M. S. Howard. "Do not wait for aid from others foreman in a levee camp near Helena, > > National Bank Charter Granted. Eliferado, III. The Countroller of Currency has granted the application of A. H. Kinsall of the Bank of El-

Unveil McKinley Memorial.

San Francisco, Cal.: A monument to the memory of President William McEinley was unveiled Thursday at the main entrance of Golden Gate Park. It is a symbolical statue of the Republic, modeled by Robert Aitken, afternoon session. a sculptor of this city and east in bronze. The figure, on a granite pedestal, represents a womana of heroic the oldest actress in the country, died size, with a large sword in one hand, and an uplifted palm in the other. The presentation was made by former Mayor James D. Phelan.

Swiss Treaty Signed. Washington: Secretary Hay and Mr. Probst, the Swiss charge d'affaires. Monday signed an arbitration treaty age, have been visited by a disastrous the fifth member of the international reported to have been placed. The on behalf of the United States and Switzerland The treaty follows the lines of the American and French ar-

Japanese column, 1,000 strong. The Japanese are reported to be advaance of the recognized crop expens the ing toward Sin Tsin Tin.

MILITIA RIFLES

SENT TO ZEIGLER

the brewery workers' union and the Sheriff Stein of Franklin county. eers, firemen and teamsters were set- Krag-Jorgenson rifles and 500 rounds able to Maintain Order.

The situation Thursday was critisue, with one minor exception, was cal. The colliery, the stockade, the was employed on the Nicaragua sur- salary is $7, per month, and he must against the brewery workers. The ailroad and the citizens of the town constant fear, owing to the desultory employed about breweries should join | tring which has marked the nightly and come under the jurisdiction of attacks of unknown persons claimed by Leiter's officials to be union min- penses while here, but soon after we canal buildings here near little darky The mining of coal is practically

Some idea of the wide scope of territory over which this trouble exer or not they shall secrede from the scription. On two sides of Zeigler is immediate tamilles who might want from the States. a woody tract, quite thickly studded to come down. It was charged during the debate with underbrush. The contour of the and to protect the town from maraudfiremen on strike in St. Louis and ing an unusual number of men must Belleville, Ill., with nonunion men, be constantly kept on duty night and

To the southwest the Little Muddy GOMPERS RE-ELECTED

Just across the river from the Only One Vote Against Him, and that He Is Enthusiastic Especially When ing or obtained by the brewery work- pumping station is an unusually thick ers' union against other organiza- growth of timber. The railroad runs through miles of woods-both the illi-Santiago Iglesias, representative nois Central and the St. Louis Valfrom Porto Rico, addresed the dele- ley-and here again scores of men nonunion men are properly guarded.

One-half mile from Christopher and A resolution to do away with the four miles from Zeigler is stationed Washington lobby committee was Camp Tanner, where for months the voted down after the Socialistic dele- union miners have been living. They gates had made speeches in favor of disavow all knowledge of the attacks its passage. The Socialistis were and claim that every man in the camp opposed on the floor by President is accounted for as soon as trouble > of the several attacks that have been made, based on an intimate knowledge of the situation, both from the miners' and also Leiter's side, is that TREATY LAWS the men engaged in the ambuscading are nonunion men, whom Leiter has brought here to do his work, and who, when conditions were brought to their attention, have been most bitter in denunciation of his methods.

peasant girl. Little boys and girls respondent at Port Said asserts that lichy stated that they were never paid A large number of them have nuthupon the stones, only that Jack willingly forego, their daily sweet the Russian volunteer steamer Voron for their work fully; that conditions were misrepresteted. They are of a as a transport, has three submarine class that bodes no good to a com-

CZAR MUST YIELD

Zemstvo Member Says That War Will Eventually Follow Refusal.

the zemstvos n.emorial, as it will be selected by a large vote over St. Illinois Central, in charge of agineer presented to the emperor, is as fol- Louis, Toronto and Niagara Falls,

"In view of the importance and difficulty of the internal and external SAYS ZEIGLER REPORTS situation through which Russia is passing, this informal conference expressed the hope that the sovereign power Japs Make Attacks on Lone Tree Hill. will summon freely the elected repress Adjutant General Scott Declares That fireman jumped from their engine. St. Petrsburg: Official advices only sentatives of the nation, in order, with Union Miners' Camp Is a Menace. bring affairs at the front up to No- their co-operation, to obtain for the vember 23, and the absence of official fatherland an evolution of the state news of a later date, either from the in the direction of establishing a new Scott returned Friday morning from train ahead until it was too late to Japanese of the Russian side, arouses basis of law for mutual co-operation Zeigler, accompanied by Lieutenant stop.

A delegate said:

topolk-Mirsky is minister we know we Think Greek Steamer Is Lost. Constantinople: The Greek steamer Elpis, long overdue, is now regarded senegers were lost,

Evans to Succeed Barker. Washington: Rear Admiral Robley

D. Evans, now president of the lighthouse board, will be appointed to the supreme comand of the North Atlanwound in the spine. The wound was the fleet when Rear Admiral Barker indicted Saturday by a man who re- retires, next March. Rear Admiral Davis will be second in command. Child Killed in Runaway, Bloomington, Ill.: In a ranaway accident Sunday at New Holland the 6-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. derade, to convert the bank into a Allan Chance was killed. The metner was seriously injured. Montgomery Teachers Meet.

Litchfield, Ill., The annual institute of the teachers of Montgomery county was held in this city Friday. Dr. Walter H. Bradley, president of Blackburn university of Carlinville, delivered an interesting address at the Oldest Actress Is Dead.

Philadelphia: Mrs. Maria B. Wilks,

Friday. She was 83 years old. Mrs. Wilks was the original "Widow Melnotte" with Edwin Forrest. Storm Leaves 30,000 Destitute. Amsterdam: The Talautze islands northeast of Celebes, Malay archipel

PANAMA ENGINEER MAKES COMPLAINT AGAINST COMMISSION

vey in 1899 and 1900; unfair deal all around. They hired a the camp. lot of us, agreeing to pay all our ex- "We are living in some of the old got here they informed us that no settlement of three or four hundred expenses would be paid and that if neople. This is a mean country to we did not like it we could quit and work over. It has all been cleared pay his expenses out of that We Bohio, Canal Zone, Nov. 7, 1904 -- have to buy our own provisions and The Canal Commission is giving us an hire our own cook and helpers around for a number of miles back from the "When we got on the steamer in liver, and it has all grown up again

ary and that our expenses were to be "Things are rather slow down here now in the brewery workers' union, nearly all of the imported men to paid; that we were to have a six- and so little going on that none of us weeks' vacation in each year, and that bear anything except what we get from we could have a $15-rate home to New | the States in the newspapers. We York for our vacation; also we could have post offices of our own through tends can be gleaned by a brief de have a $15-rate for members of our the canal zone, and a domestic rate

"We have quite a little sickness "As soon as they changed their down here among the men, but noththat the brewery workers' union had land is admirably fitted for ambushing minds about it, they informed us that ling serious yet. I think they, the the original contract was at an end, Commissioners, will have to do the but if we wanted to stay under the right thing by us before there is a

GOOD-NATURED CROWD

LABOR PRESIDENT

FOLLOWS PRESIDENT

Viewing Live Exhibits. St. Louis: President Roosevelt, ration of labor Saturday. One dele | velt and Miss Alice Rossevelt, saw the leader of the Socialistic element in From the early forenoon, when the the convention, voted in the negative party officially arrived, until late at and asked that his vote be so re- night, when the President's family corded. Compers was given a great went to the home of William H. ovation when he retook the gavel. He Thompson, there was not a dull min.

and Treasurer John B. Lennon were lies exhibits and the Philippines were unanimously chos a to serve another all visited; there was a military parede in the morning and fireworks at The following eight vice-presidents night, and the day's testivities came were re-elected; James Duncan, John to a climax with a great banquet at Mitchell, James O'Connell, Max Mor- the Tyrolean Alps, where many

The election was a unanimous choice for guarding the President and handexecut in the cases of Mr Kidd and ling the crowds were perfect. At all Mr. Spencer. The John Moffat of times the executive was surrounded the United hatters was elected unani- by stalwart Secret-Service men, who arranged programme for sight-seeing James Wood of the eigar makers was carried out practically to the

ternal delegate to the British trades | Sunday the President was the guest union congress; Frank Feeley of of Mr. Thempson and late at night TO NEW DEMANDS | Philadelphia, of the elevator con- he and his party departed for Wash-

> Failure to See Signal Causes Collision. Centralia, Ill.: One mile south of T. A. Sailor and Fireman J. M. Kirkpatrick, and pulling a heavy northbound freight, collided with the rear end of another freight, demolishing the engine and eight freight cars and blocking both north and south bound tracks until noon. The engineer and The brakeman was severely injured. The accident was due to the failure of Stringfield, III.: Adjutant General the engineer to see the signals on the of ammunition, requested by Sheriff Washington; The call on national "We are not revolutionaries. We do Stein of Franklin county, with which bank depositories for 25 per cent of Government deposits has created no is no result now we will continue the ports of the firing at Zeigler early bank which has a small Government field if necessary. The movement will | Zeigler, is a menace to the peace of | Blue Grass traction company, which According to a telegram from Se- gather headway as time clapses. We the community, and that it should be was incorporated here three years against the companay will reach about $15,000.

> > Banks' Condition Pleasing.

Sues for $30,000 Damages. Vincennes, Ind.: The Vincennes and Ohio railroad was derailed one Board of Trade and the Central Car nile east of Columbus and thirty-five and Foundry Company are defendants onsengers were injure). The train in a suit for $30,000 damages, brought eff Montgomery Sunday morning at by William L. Staley of Terre Haute, reine. It was in charge of Conductor, builder of the plant, Staley also wants W. E. Hopper, who was among the a receiver appointed and a $15,000 mechanics' lien forcelesed. Forty-Seven Chinamen Deported. Austin, Tex.: Forty-seven China-

San Francisco, Cal.: Two hundred and fifty one Chinese arrived from the men, who were captured along the st. Louis Fair Tuesday in charge of Mexican border in Texas, Arizona and an immigration inspector and a strong New Mexico, have just been deported guard. They were immediately trans- to China. They were charged with recred from Oakland Mole to the violating the United States exclusion

> To Restore Seized Bibles. Constantinogle: The Porte has is-lay authorized a decial of published sued orders to the authorities at reports of the aggagement of his Trebizond to cease interference with laughter Miss Pauline Mor.on, to the sale of American Bibles and to restore these that have been seized.

vana held Thanksgiving day union intendent of the Rio Grande Western services and there was a ball at night Railroad, to succeed Jeseph H. Young. at the American club Francis Joseph Accepts Task.

1 : Petersburg: It is stated that Emperor Francis Joseph has accepted the at Cardiff. One purchase of 10.000 Russe-British invitation to nominate tons is recorded, and other orders are hurricane, causing the sea to rise to commission to inquire into the Dogger steamer King Robert, 3,500 tons, has such an extent that it flooded the is bank incident.

account.

been chartered at Cardiff for Japanese Is Driven to Death by Grief.

Galesburg, Ill.: William Wilber, aged tions, ever brought to this por; in one 86, committed suicide by hanging himvessel came in Thursday on the stea- self at Avon. Grief over his wife's mer Main from Bremen. There were death is thought to have been responsible for his act.

San Francisco, Cal.: After spending almost the entire day Friday in a bitter deba.e. the difference between tled by the American federation of of ammunition. labor. The vote on every point at isbrewery workers' union insisted that of Zeigler have been kept in a state of all firemen, engineers and teamsters the brewery workers' union. The representatives of the International bro- ers. therboods of engineers, firemen and teamsters objected to this and intro- abandoned temporarily, owing to the duced a resolution to the effect that | excitement and the apparent inability | go home. all workers in breweries be organized of Leiter to keep men there. The according to their respective crafts, union miners have kept up a constant and asked the convention to vote that campaign of persuasion against him. all engineers, firemen and teamsters and have been successful in inducing shall teave the same and join organi- quit, zations of their respective crafts. This decision permits the engineers, firemen and teamsters to elect wheth-tions be withdrawn or dissolved.

gates on the condition of the working- must be stationed if the possibilities men in his native land. He averred of train wrecking and attacks on that 600 Porto Ricans died every Gompers. The latter bitterly de- begins. nounced the Socialists for what he | The most plausible theory adopted termed their sneering tirades.

London: The Daily Telegraph's corsprings out and grasps his bit in a meats and give the small moneys thus etz, which has pased the Dardanelles A boy It years old in a country | boats on board, and that the Yaraslav, | munity.

the belief that more important opera- between the imperial authority and Colonel Snand of his office, who went front relate renewed skirmishing, cul- not believe the people are prepared to arm special deputies. minating on the night of November for a republic. We support the mon- General Scott says Sheriff Stein flurry, and, according to Secretary of 22 in a fresh attack on Poutiloff (Lone archial idea, but we believe it must stated there had been no use of his the Treasury Shaw, indicates an exably bewildered by the blows he re Any one he had remembered in his Tree) Hill, in which the Japanese be a constitutional monarchy, and enlisting deputies into service, as he cellent financial condition generally. were repulsed with heavy loss, and that the emperor must choose bey and had no arms for them previous. The circular call issued several days also a severe fight with Chinese ban- tween the moderate programme we of the atrival of the State's arms. ago has brought only one request for dits near Kaiuan, in which 200 Chi- offer or eventual revolution. If there' He also says that some of the re- exception thus far, and that from a

Morgan Buys $1,200,000 Residence. New York: J. Pierpont Morgan has bought the residence belonging to Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes, which was held

Levee Camp Foreman Shot.

"Badly hu.t. I will send for help and you will always have enough to Ark, was brought to Memphis Friday morning, suffering from a gunshot The Rev. Dr. Burrell tells this fused to tollow Howard's orders.

bitration treaty. Force Russians from Da Pass. Makden: Russian dtechments occupying Da pass have retired before the lands and left 20,000 persons desti Snow Makes High Estimate. Chicago: R. W. Snow estimates the orn crop at 2,572,868,000 bushels This is the highest estimate by an Carbondale, III.: Lieutenant Colonel | Washington: The Washington Post | new papers, which simply stated that Shand of the Adjutant General's of Sunday contained the following letter, we were employed in a certain posi-See, in response to the request of written to a citizen of the District by tion at a certain salary, and that was an engineer in the service of the all. International brotherhood of engin- reached Zeigler Thursday with fifty United States at Colon, Panama. The "That is one way of doing business. writer is a former employe of the I suppose those Commissioners think Isthmian Canal Commission, which is that they are the most honorable tow the Panara Commission, and business men in the land. A rodman's

New York City they had written con- with a second-growth of brush and tracts for us to sign, stating our sal- vines.

new terms we could. They sent us canal built down here."

Cast by Victor Berger.

San Francisco, Cal.: Samuel Gompers was practically unanimously regard of the Louisiana Purchase Exelected president of the American fed- position, accompanied by Mrs. Ruosegate, Victor Berger of Milwaukee, a World's Fair Saturday promised the delegates to try to do lute. much mere for the labor movement. The palaces of Liberal Arts, Main the luture than he had done in chinery. Electricity and Agriculture, the past. Secretary Frank Morrison the Government building and Fisher-ris, Thomas I. Kidd, D. A. Hayes, Dan-, speeches were made, iel J. Keefe and William J. Spencer. Police and military arrangements mously as a fraternal delegate to the permitted no unauthorized person to WNU MONDTY NOV 28 28 28 .. approach too near. The previously international union was elected fra- minute, all the day through.

structors' union, was chosen fraternal ington. delegate to the Canadian trade and labor council. The American federation of labor voted Saturday night to meet next here at 12:30 a. m. a collision oc-St. Petersburg: The final article of year in Pittslerg. Pittsburg was curred in which engine No. $28 of the nere with fifty rifles and 5,000 rounds A Japanese column of two com- work of agitation by education. There' in the week were grossly exagger deposit.

ARE EXAGGERATED

> Columbus, Miss.: Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock train No. 4 on the Mobile hadly injured. Deported Chinese Aboard.

steamer Coptic which sailed Saturday, act. Mics Morton Not Engaged. Washington: Secretary Morton Sun-

Thomas Chaimers of Chicago. Kruger Left Big Fortune. New York: Paul Kruger, the late

ows and orphans. Give Ball at Havana.

Steerage List Is 2,551. New York: The largest number of steerage passengers, with two excep-2,551 names on the steerage list.

" a War for he support of Boer wid- position pays $3,000 per annum. Havana: Americans residing in Ha- was Friday appointed general super-

Appointed Land Office Register. Washington: It was announced at President of the Transvaal Republic, the Interior Department Friday that left a fortune estimated at $3,750,000. Richard T. Morgan of El Reno, a He bequeathed $125,000 to various so- prominent statehood enthulast, has cieties in Holland, and sums to all been appointed Register of the Woodthe funds opened after the South Afri- ward Land Office in Cklahoma. The Weiby Succeeds Young. Denver, Colo .: Arthur Earl Welby

> Japan Buys Welsh Coal. London: Japan is buying Welsh coal resigned.